presents the art of

MARC FISHMAN

Born in Moldavia in 1971, Marc Fishman and his family lived in Austria and Italy, and eventually settled in the United States near Hartford, Connecticut.

Marc began his studies at the University of Connecticut, where he entered one of the top physical therapy programs in the country. After a change of heart, he transferred into the art school at the University of Hartford, where he began his formal art training. He furthered his schooling in Florence, Italy, where he hoped to study classical painting closer to its source.

Since entering the professional art world, Marc has won numerous awards, including "Best in Show" at the World Fantasy Convention in 1997. In 1998 Marc also won the esteemed Chesley Award for his piece entitled, "Salvation." His original art has been selected to be included in several books including Spectrum, The Chesley's, and most recently 'Eyes of the Soul,' by Phil Rubinov-Jacobson.

Marc's paintings have graced galleries in Italy, New York, Chicago and Beverly Hills. Duirwaigh Gallery of Atlanta Georgia is now the exclusive home to all of Marc's original paintings and fine art prints. Many of his images are now available for license to discriminating manufacturing partners worldwide.
